

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

This is not what I, as citizen of the US, would consider appropriate use of the PUBLIC airwaves. I feel the PUBLIC airwaves are less and less PUBLIC. As a country with a huge population we need regulations to ensure the common good at a minimum level.

Thank you.
